

Who's under attack?

Across

- ✓1. Home of one of Earth's oldest colonies a mere 25ly from Sol
- ✓4. Home to two intelligent species that enter into a symbiotic relationship sparingly
- ✓5. One of only a few systems that produces Zenite
- ✓7. The inhabitants of this system recently appealed to the Federation for protectorate status to protect themselves from the Romulan Free State
- ✓8. This system suffered a brutal occupation during the Federation/Klingon War
- ✓10. Kahless the Unforgettable promised to return from Sto-vo-kor here
- ✓11. Home to the Klingon Empire's greatest shipyards
- ✓16. The loss of the USS Enterprise-C here paved peaceful path forward for the Federation and Klingon Empire
- ✓17. One of the most famous and notable pleasure planets of the Federation
- ✓18. Original an Earth colony, this system was captured by the Romulans during the Earth-Romulan War and is now part of the Free State
- ✓19. A capitalist haven between the Federation and Romulan Free State
- ✓20. USS Defiant was destroyed in this system.
- ✓21. Home to the Cardassian Twelfth Order

Down

- ✓1. This system shares its name with the Roman god of the forge
- ✓2. The closest system to Sol
- ✓3. Named after the first captain of the SS Enterprise
- ✓6. The School for Diplomacy and Candor can be found here
- ✓7. Bordering Kzinti space, this system is home to the M'Yengh shipyards
- ✓9. A dilithium rich core world that joined the Federation late due to mistrust of certain founding species
- ✓12. Home system to the species that gives its name over to the longest-lived criminal syndicate in the galaxy
- ✓13. This system was a core world occupied during the Dominion War
- ✓14. This system is still defended by the Imperial Guard
- ✓15. The Romulan Republic relies on this system to support its navy and trade